2006-2007 Academic Year

Release of Directory Information

As provided by the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, Trinity Law School and Trinity Graduate School retain the right to publish, at its discretion, certain categories of directory information with respect to each student currently or previously in attendance.

Directory information includes a student's name, address, telephone numbers, e-mail address, major field of study, dates of attendance, degrees received, and the most recent previous educational institution attended by the student. Academic information, such as grades earned or grade point average, is specifically EXCLUDED from directory information.

A more detailed explanation of the law is available from the Registrar's Office.

You have the right to inform the school that you do not wish this directory information to be released.

Please bear in mind that if you do NOT wish such information to be released, we will be obligated to withhold it EVEN WHEN such persons may be your family or friends who inform us that they have need to contact you for some reason.

If you do NOT wish directory information to be released, please mark the appropriate boxes below and submit it to the Registrar's Office.

Check each category for which you DENY release of directory information.
