

CBHD'S 29TH ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Integrity and Conscience: Bioethics and the Professions

JUNE 23–25, 2022

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

Paper and poster proposals are now being accepted for CBHD's 29th annual summer conference.

The 2022 conference invites healthcare and other professionals, scholars, researchers, educators, and students to address questions associated with our conference theme—"Integrity and Conscience: Bioethics and the Professions"—and to engage more broadly with foundational and emerging issues raised at the intersections of medicine, science, technology, and our common humanity.

TOPICS:

All serious proposals relevant to the study of bioethics are welcome, particularly those in the following subject areas:

- General Bioethics
- Biotechnology
- Clinical Ethics
- Disability
- Emerging Issues in Bioethics
- Empirical Research
- Global Bioethics and/or Public Health
- Medical Humanities
- Nursing Ethics
- Philosophical and/or Theological Engagement
- Public Policy and/or Biolaw
- Research Ethics
- Technology Assessment
- Women's Health
