

CBHD'S 29TH ANNUAL CONFERENCE

STUDENT PAPER COMPETITION

JUNE 23-25, 2022

Undergraduate, graduate, seminary, and doctoral students are invited to engage questions from a Christian perspective associated with foundational or emerging issues raised at the intersections of medicine, science, technology, and our common humanity.

PRIZES:

- Cash prize of $250
- Considered for publication with CBHD
- Presentation of paper during a paper session at the conference
- Complimentary conference registration

TOPICS:

All serious proposals relevant to the study of bioethics are welcome, particularly those in the following subject areas:

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| • Biblical and/or Theological Anthropology                      | • Disability                              |
| • Biblical and/or Theological Approaches to Cultural Engagement | • Emerging Technologies                   |
| • Biblical and/or Theological Ethics                            | • End-of-Life Issues                      |
| • General Bioethics   | • Ethical Theory                          |
| • Biotechnology   | • Historical Theology and/or Perspectives |
|   | • Philosophy of Medicine                  |
|   | • Reproductive Technology and Ethics      |

SUBMISSION DEADLINE | JANUARY 15, 2022

Visit cbhd.org/conf2022/student-competition for guidelines and additional information.