Dear Student,

Welcome to Trinity in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ! In the following pages you will find our Student Guide. It communicates the core values and policies that guide us as we strive to live in Christian community. Our desire is to create a holistic learning environment that reflects the values of the Kingdom of God. During your time here, please take the time to not only grow intellectually, but also physically, emotionally, and spiritually. Love the Lord your God with all of your heart, soul, strength, and mind.

While at Trinity, I am sure that you will experience excellent and quality teaching and learning in our classrooms. At the same time, the fullness of your educational experience will also be impacted by a myriad of factors outside the classrooms, such as: relationships with family, friends, fellow-students, and staff; corporate worship; devotional life; attention to your emotional and physical well-being; and service to others, both on campus and in the surrounding communities. It is my hope that you will engage in the various relationships that the Lord has set before you during your time here.

There are many people throughout the University who are here to serve and help you. The section on offices and services is meant to familiarize you so that you know what they do. An index is provided to help you find information quickly and easily. Please feel free to call the Student Life office or stop by if you have any questions and we will be glad to assist you.

Finally, in these pages you will also find the details of Trinity's community expectations, discipline and policies. Positive community life depends on clear communication of expectations and fair consequences for not meeting those expectations. Please be familiar with the Student Guide and join us in creating a positive TIU experience for all.

May you experience great joy as you seek to fulfill God's call upon your life. We're so glad you're here!

Sincerely,

Amanda Onapito
Dean of Students

TRINITY INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY
CORE VALUES

Trinity International University educates men and women to engage in God's redemptive work in the world by cultivating academic excellence, Christian faithfulness, and lifelong learning.

Christ-Centered

We are here to model and to engender Christ-centeredness in all that we do. The lordship of Christ should affect and be evident in every aspect of education, relationship, and endeavor at Trinity.

Community-Focused

We seek to be a learning community that operates by the ethics and values of the Kingdom of God. The makeup of the community should be a reflection of the breadth and diversity of the family of God. The way we treat people should be consistent with the morals, justice, compassion, humility, and love of our Lord. Interaction with students should both reflect an attitude of service to them as individuals and take advantage of opportunities for mentoring and modeling and personal development.

Church-Connected

We value service to the Church because we believe that the Church is God's central vehicle to accomplish his work in the world. Our vision for serving the Church is a global vision, just as God's vision for his Church is global. A particular value affecting Trinity's work is to identify and meet the educational needs of the EFCA.

Culturally-Engaged

We seek to bring faith, life, and learning to bear on the issues facing our world. Our perspective is one of engagement with culture from a Christ-centered and biblically rooted foundation. We are committed to high standards of research, scholarship, thinking, and living as a means of preparing students to engage the world and to respond honestly and earnestly to those in a pluralistic society.

STUDENT LIFE AND DEPARTMENTS

Each student retains the same box until leaving school permanently or by requesting to close or change it. Mailboxes should be checked regularly (once a week). Boxes which go unchecked for more than 30 days become subject to be closed, upon which the student shall be alerted via email. Mail is generally distributed to the student mailboxes by 2pm, although Monday and post-holiday deliveries may take slightly longer due to the high volume of mail being processed.

When the CPO receives a package for a student, the CPO will notify them via email that a package is ready for pickup. Please wait until you have received an email notification from the CPO that a package has been received for you before coming to the CPO.

When leaving school permanently or if students are not on campus for an extended period of time, students are requested to provide the CPO with a mail forwarding address. Failure to do so could result in mail being returned to the sender or lost in the postal system. Papers and tests from professors will not be mailed to any off-campus address. What should I do if I’m stopped by the police?

First, pull over to the side of the road as safely and as soon as possible. Once you’ve stopped your vehicle, stay in it and turn off your stereo or any other device that would hinder communication. Don’t be surprised if the officer stays behind your driver’s window a bit when talking to you. This is a safety tactic. And don't be alarmed if a second squad car arrives. Again, this is for the officer's safety. It is wise to keep your hands where the officer can see them, and don't make any sudden moves or appear to be hiding or searching for something. If you don't understand what the officer is asking or why you were pulled over, ask for an explanation in a respectful manner. Answer the officer's questions calmly and directly. If you disagree with the ticket, you will have an opportunity to go to court to make your case. Or, if you feel that the officer acted inappropriately, call the Police Department and ask to speak with a shift supervisor. ©2007 Village of Bannockburn

TEDS/TGS Standards of Conduct

Philosophy Statement

1. Why Standards of Conduct?

As a Christian community, Trinity has characteristics and structures which express its nature, enhance its purpose, and provide for the life and growth of its members. The distinctives of the Trinity community include commitment to the authority of the Word of God, the dignity of persons and the mutual support of fellow believers. These characteristics of community life are based upon:

1. Principles derived from Scripture
2. Insights discerned from various academic disciplines
3. Awareness of contemporary societal trends
4. Appreciation for the evangelical heritage of the divinity school and its constituency

Membership in the Trinity community offers unique privileges and implies unique responsibilities. These privileges include opportunities for academic, personal, and spiritual growth within a sound and balanced setting. These responsibilities involve both general patterns of community lifestyle and particular requirements regarding specific activities. The standards of the Divinity School and Graduate School are very demanding, beyond normal societal standards. In signing an application for admission, students assume the responsibility to maintain the Trinity Standards of Conduct as outlined below and others as announced. These standards, much like the training rules of an athletic team, allow students to affirm the authenticity of their commitment to the community, to learn to trust themselves and to let their word be trusted, that is, to grow in integrity by maintaining congruence between their life and these high standards.

2. What are the Patterns of a Christian Lifestyle?

Scripture sets the overall parameters for Christian community that include love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, tolerance, and self-control. In relationships with each other, community members are expected to practice compassion, to bear one another's burdens, to forgive one another, and to encourage one another. In relation to the material world, they are expected to exercise good stewardship and appropriate use of resources.

These expectations are in contrast to sins such as jealousy, gossip, conceit, greed, the sowing of discord, and the expressing of prejudice based on race, creed, ethnic origin, sex, and/or socio-economic status. All such sins are an affront to God and are destructive to the community.

Specific Requirements of Standards of Conduct

Scripture does not provide specific teaching regarding all human behavior. Consequently, controversy regarding individual practices has arisen throughout the history of the church. Any set of community standards may contain elements with which some members may disagree. Nevertheless, out of a desire to encourage an environment appropriate to its purposes, respect for its heritage, and concern for the values of its constituency, Trinity has established the following behavioral guidelines for all full and part-time students while being both on and off-campus (unless otherwise stated):

1. Practices, which are specifically forbidden in Scripture, will not be condoned, such as dishonesty, theft, pre-marital sex, abortion, adultery, homosexual behavior, and use of pornography, profanity, gossip, racism, and infringement upon the rights of others.
2. In a Christian academic community, academic dishonesty, including cheating, plagiarism, and misappropriation of library materials, is regarded as a serious violation. Please see the policy on Academic Dishonesty for more information.
3. Trinity International University is a drug-free and alcohol-free campus. Possession or consumption of alcohol and tobacco on-campus is not permitted. Please see the policy on Alcohol, tobacco, and illegal drugs for more information.
4. Abuse of one's body is inappropriate for a Christian. Accordingly, students will be required to refrain from the possession or use of harmful substances such as non-prescribed stimulants and depressants, and hallucinogenic drugs. Please see the policy on Alcohol, tobacco, and illegal drugs for more information.
5. Trinity values a community environment that is free from all forms of discrimination and harassment. Trinity will not tolerate sexual harassment of any kind. Those found to have engaged in sexual harassment will be subject to discipline that could include dismissal from the University. Please see the policy on Sexual Harassment and Sexual Assault for more information.
6. Discrimination and harassment of any type toward any individual (including domestic relationships) will not be tolerated by the institution. This includes any form of verbal, physical, written (including electronic transmissions) abuse, threats or stalking. This also may include a persistent pattern of behavior directed at another individual that distresses, frightens, or is in some manner inappropriate or threatening. Examples of this include, but are not limited to, hate speech, abuse because of one's race, religion, nationality or disability. In the event of threats or the potential of stalking, TEDS/TGS reserves the right to contact law enforcement agencies.

A formal complaint procedure has been established to respond to allegations of discrimination and harassment and is available to all students from the Graduate Student Life department. Those found in violation will be subject to disciplinary action.

7. Any form of gambling, including but not limited to lotteries, betting, and any casino-related activity where money is at stake is not permitted.
8. Unauthorized presence on or use of any TIU property is prohibited (ie. Vacant rooms, suites, or apartments), as is unauthorized visitations in residence halls (ie. Violation of visiting hours) or intentionally trespassing in areas from which individuals have been banned by previous order. Law enforcement authority will be contacted if individuals who have been banned from campus property are seen on campus.
9. Scripture explicitly teaches respect for governmental authority. Students are therefore expected to uphold the laws of the local community, the state, and the nation except on those occasions where obedience to civil authority would require behavior directly in conflict with other Scriptural principles.
10. Sexual misconduct is prohibited and includes but is not limited to sexual activity outside of marriage, adultery, indecent exposure, voyeurism, or homosexual behaviors.
11. Destroying, defacing, or damaging of university property, owned or leased, and property belonging to students, faculty, staff, or guests of the university will not be tolerated, including but not limited to misusing computer equipment or programs, vending machines, or personal property.
12. Theft and possession of stolen property is prohibited. Any unauthorized taking or keeping of items of university property, items rented, leased, or placed on the campus, property leased by the university, items belonging to students, faculty, staff, or guests of the university, using another student's or employee's username and password, or possession of suspected stolen property is prohibited. Theft over $250 in value and any involving credit cards are automatically reported to Bannockburn Police Department, while all others are reported at the request of the victim.
13. Deliberate refusal to comply with a clearly stated, reasonable directive issued by any school personnel, including faculty, RAs, Security staff, Creative Dining personnel, acting in the performance of their duties, is prohibited. Disrespect by word or manner of conduct to any school employee or any officials at all school events is also prohibited.
14. Any of the following are considered disorderly conduct and are not acceptable: lewd, indecent, offensive, annoying, obscene, or inappropriate conduct or expression thereof on school-owned property or at school-sponsored events; the disruption of any student function or activity; conduct on or off campus that is in conflict with the welfare and integrity of the school and that identifies the student as an unfit associate for other students; any unauthorized demonstrations.
15. No form of hazing will be tolerated. Hazing is defined as the infliction of physical violence on any individual; any activities calculated to be embarrassing, harassing, or imposing physical, emotional, or mental strain on any individual; or any activity that would, in any way, jeopardize the physical, moral, or scholastic well-being of any individual. This also includes harassment by requiring unnecessary work and harassment through banter, ridicule, or criticism.

Disciplinary Process and Procedures

Discipline is rooted in God's love. It is not punitive in nature but restorative. It is a way to build relationships and reconcile and restore individuals to the Lord and the community. Our approach to discipline focuses on people and relationships, not rules and regulations. Although we strive to maintain a healthy environment, we are more concerned about the motives, attitude, and persons involved than with the policy violation itself.

When a policy violation occurs, various parties can be affected, including the individual, members of the community, or the community itself. In this light, we approach discipline holistically. We seek to help community members take responsibility for their actions and make right what they have wronged, which sometimes includes restitution and/or consequences. In every situation we seek to take all things into consideration. Attitudes, repentance, and honesty play a large part in the decision-making process. We strive to embrace individuals throughout the discipline process and seek to avoid feelings of alienation in the community. We want Trinity to be an environment in which members feel loved unconditionally. We seek the Lord for wisdom in all decisions and act in a manner that we believe has the highest potential for restoration and growth for all those involved.

Any community member who senses that a violation of the Trinity Standards of Conduct has occurred has the responsibility to confront the alleged violator and report the alleged violation to a Student Life staff member. Students living in the residence hall can report the alleged violation to a Resident Assistant. If the Resident Assistant finds reasonable cause to believe that a violation has occurred, he or she may take disciplinary action or refer the matter to the Graduate Resident Assistant, Assistant Dean, Associate Dean, or Dean of Students for further review.

Students not living in the dormitory can report the alleged violation directly to the Dean, Associate, or Assistant Dean of Students.

Incident Reports and the Judicial Process

When Student Life staff ascertains that a violation of community life expectations has indeed occurred, an incident report will be filed. Incident Reports will be issued for incidents relating to an individual(s) violation of stated expectations as well as incidents of blatant inconsideration, damage or destruction. These standards have been prayerfully made and students, in coming to Trinity, have committed themselves to following these standards. The Divinity School and Graduate School strive to be consistent in taking disciplinary action. All students are reminded that no two situations are identical. Previous offenses, attitudes displayed, and other confidential factors may play an important role in the exact disciplinary action taken. Attitudes displayed by the student(s) will play an important role in the report procedure which is as follows:

- A. Student Life staff will meet with the student to discuss the incident report. If the violation occurs in the residence hall, the appropriate Residence Life staff will meet with the student first. The student will receive a copy of the report.
- B. Incident Reports are presented to the Dean, Associate, or Assistant Dean of Students. One or more of the following actions may be taken:
- Warning given to the student(s)
  - Interview with the Dean, Associate, or Assistant Dean of Students
  - Disciplinary Probation - the student is placed on probation with specific conditions for a specified period of time
  - Fine/Community Service
  - Restitution - repayment for loss and apology
  - Removal of community privileges
  - Required counseling/ Accountability relationships and mentoring
  - Meeting with the Student Hearing Committee
  - Removal from campus housing for on-campus residents
  - If, in the judgment of the Dean of Students, the seriousness of a student's violations jeopardizes the immediate health or safety of the community or its members, a Dean's dismissal may be given.
- C. A student may appeal an Incident Report within 2 business days of the date noted on the report. Please see "Appeals Procedure" for more information.
- D. If, in the judgment of the Dean, Associate, or Assistant Dean of Students, a student's violations are serious or numerous or jeopardizes the health and safety of the community, the student will be called to appear before a Student Hearing Committee. This committee generally includes but is not limited to the Associate or Assistant Dean of Students, Academic Dean (or designate), a faculty member, and a member of the Graduate Student Government Association. Other relevant faculty members may also be invited. The student is also invited to select a faculty member, staff member, or student of their choice to be present to serve as a character witness. A character witness will not have voting power in the Student Hearing Committee.

Legal representation or any other form of advocacy representation from outside the Trinity community is not permitted. Normally the student will be notified at least twenty-four hours before the hearing is scheduled to convene. As a result of the hearing, the committee makes a decision often from the above listed possible actions.

Student may also request that a Student Hearing Committee be convened in order to appeal the decision of the Associate or Assistant Dean of Students according to the "Appeals Procedure" below.

- E. Normally, the student will be notified at least 24 hours before the hearing is scheduled to convene. As a result of the hearing, one or more of the following actions will be taken:

- No further discipline required or a reversal of previous decision if committee was convened to appeal previous decisions.
- Disciplinary Probation (note description above)
- Dismissal - the violator is dismissed or requested to withdraw from classes immediately and exit the campus within 24 hours and may not re-enroll without approval of the Student Hearing Committee. If a student poses a severe risk to the community the university reserves the right to escort him or her off campus immediately. Dismissed students are not allowed on campus without prior permission from the Dean of Students.

Note: Dismissals and requested withdrawals follow the same refund schedule for withdrawals found in the TEDS or TGS catalog.

Disciplinary Records and Confidentiality of Disciplinary Actions

A temporary record regarding disciplinary action is kept by the Dean of Students/Student Life Office. The record is not a part of the student's official transcript.

Trinity International University staff and faculty are prohibited from offering confidentiality to any students regarding reports of Standards of Conduct violations, including all illegal activity. It is the policy of Trinity International University to foster a campus environment that is conducive to learning, promotes the university's educational purposes, maintains reasonable order, and protects the rights and safety of all members of the community. The policy below outlines the procedures to be taken by Student Care Team in the case that a student of concern is brought to their attention for any reason. The purpose of this policy is for early support as well as early intervention.

The policy is not a substitute for appropriate disciplinary action taken under the university's disciplinary procedures, nor does it preclude removal or dismissal of students from the university or university-owned facilities in the university's discretion or as a result of the violation of other university policies, procedures, regulations. When necessary the Student Care Team may recommend the involvement of the Threat Assessment Team, Sexual Assault & Harassment Team, or Student Hearing Committee. The Involuntary Withdrawal Committee is a sub-committee of the SCT where there has been no clear violation of the Student Handbook or Community Life Agreement.

Reports of concern for a student may come from fellow students, faculty or staff members.

Students are deemed in need of the attention of the Student Care Team if they are demonstrating concerning behavior including but not limited to:

Student Involuntary Withdrawal Policy

The Student Involuntary Withdrawal Policy exists to maintain a campus environment conducive to learning and accomplishing the University's educational mission, while protecting the rights and safety of all members of the University community.

Students who exhibit harmful, potentially harmful, or disruptive behavior toward themselves or others due to apparent medical or psychological distress, and who do not request a voluntary withdrawal, may be subject to involuntary withdrawal from the University if their behavior renders them unable to effectively function in the Trinity community. Such behavior includes, but is not limited to, that which:

- Poses a significant threat of danger/harm to the emotional and/or physical welfare of the student in question, and/or other members of the Trinity community; and/or
- Interferes with the lawful activities or basic rights of other students, employees or visitors; and/or
- Causes, or threatens to cause significant property damage; and/or
- Demonstrates an inability to satisfy personal needs (e.g., nourishment, shelter) such that there is a reasonable possibility that serious physical harm or death might occur; and/or
- Violates expectations for student behavior as presented in the Student Guide/Handbook and lacks the capacity to comprehend and participate in the University's disciplinary process; and/or
- Violates expectations for student behavior and without understanding the nature of wrongfulness of the conduct at the time of the offense and/or
- Engages in inappropriate behavior that the University deems disruptive or destructive to the learning process and/or community life.

The decision for Involuntary Withdrawal is a response of urgency to a student's emergency situation and involves two steps: 1) Temporary Involuntary Withdrawal and 2) Involuntary Withdrawal.

1. A Temporary Involuntary Withdrawal decision may be made by a Student Life Dean (Assistant, Associate or Dean of Students for the student's respective school of enrollment). The Temporary Involuntary Withdrawal decision must be confirmed within 48 hours by the Academic Dean's Office (an Associate Dean or Dean) and in consultation with a licensed mental health professional. At this point the student will be considered: 1) 'Involuntarily Withdrawn' or 2) will not be allowed to return to regular campus activity.
2. An Involuntary Withdrawal decision will be reviewed and confirmed by a Special Advisory Committee within 3 weeks of the initial Temporary Involuntary Withdrawal decision. The Special Advisory Committee will determine outcomes based upon TIU policies, clinician recommendations, and the student's updated situation. Outcomes may include:
  - dismissal with no re-enrollment possible
  - dismissal with conditions of re-enrollment outlined
  - change of status to voluntary Leave-of-Absence to obtain assistance with conditions for re-enrollment
  - other

In addition, a student may be classified as Involuntarily Withdrawn and/or disciplined under the policy if s/he:

- Fails to attend any required meeting under this policy; and/or
- Fails to timely schedule and/or appear at a psychological assessment as requested; and/or
- Fails to adhere to any conditions placed on him/her in order for him/her to remain enrolled and/or remain in housing.

Appeal Process:

The student may appeal the Special Advisory Committee's decision; re-enrollment is not guaranteed. The appeal of an Involuntary Withdrawal decision is first made in writing within 3 business days to the Vice President for Student Life and secondarily to the Dean of Students of Trinity International University.

Policy On Academic Dishonesty

The community at Trinity International University promotes a commitment to integrity in all areas of life. Academic integrity is essential in the search for and promotion of truth. This pursuit of truth, while being an important goal in itself, is integral to other essential beliefs foundational to the Trinity community: (1) all individuals, being in the image of God, are to be respected for their intellectual contributions; (2) the use of one's God-given talents is the responsibility of every individual, and, for the Christian, excellence is a sacrifice to the Lord Jesus Christ to the glory of God; and (3) relationships within our community are to be nurtured in an environment of trust. Therefore, no form of plagiarism or cheating will be condoned within the Trinity community.

In the case of breaches of academic honesty such as plagiarism or cheating on examinations, the matter will be reported to the Dean/Associate/Assistant Dean of Students and may be referred to the Student Hearing Committee. Trinity is committed to fairness, due process, and proper compassion. At the same time, given its objectives, Trinity cannot overlook failure of personal integrity in members of the divinity/graduate community and will deal with them in a manner that seeks the best interests of all concerned. Students should be advised that normally in cases of plagiarism the penalty shall be a "0" for the paper and an "F" for the course, while plagiarism on a thesis shall result in rejection of the thesis. Normally cheating on an examination (mid-term, final, or other tests) shall result in a "0" for the exam and an "F" for the course. An unrepentant attitude could lead to dismissal from the Divinity/Graduate School.

Plagiarism gives the impression that the words or ideas in one's writings are one's own, when in reality they are taken from someone else's written or oral work. One plagiarizes when, intentionally or not, one uses someone else's words or ideas but fails to credit that person. One plagiarizes even when one does credit the author but uses his or her exact words without so indicating with quotation marks or block indentation. Plagiarism occurs, "when you use words so close to those in your source, that if your work were placed next to the source, it would be obvious that you could not have written what you did without the source at your elbow." (Wayne C. Booth, Gregory G. Colomb, Joseph M. Williams, The Craft of Research [Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 1995], 167). Plagiarism takes many forms, but all are considered to be forms of taking what belongs properly to someone else. In the words of the above authors, it is, "stealing," and hence, a breach of ethics and academic integrity. The following are different types of plagiarism.

Intentional Plagiarism of Words - absence of quotation marks or block quotation with proper reference to the source, as is the case when a writer prefaces material with a couple of introductory words.

Intentional Plagiarism of Ideas - by developing an idea that originates with someone else as a part of one's argument, even when a reference is made to the source.

Intentional Plagiarism of Papers, Abstracts, etc. - this includes the purchase or copying [including from the Internet] of someone else's paper, abstract, or thesis and submission as if it were one's own).

Indirect Plagiarism of Words - a periphrastic use of some else's words, even when loosely reworded; a wording of the material that suggests it is your own.

While intentional plagiarism is a serious offense of the community standards, indirect plagiarism is no less so. The latter is, at the least, an expression of poor scholarship. Periphrastic rewording of someone else's ideas creates the impression that the material is original with the writer. Second, no participant can justify plagiarism, whether it be from one's cultural background that shows some tolerance of plagiarism, one's inadequate preparation in writing papers or of doing research, or a lack of awareness of the community's standards.

Policy on Child Protection and Childcare

Childcare is when a child is left under the supervision and care of others so that their parent may participate in a separate meeting or event. This does not include baby-sitters hired by an individual family, families helping to watch each other's children in a residential setting, or events solely designed for children (a child's birthday party, sports camps, Kids on Kampus weekly meetings, etc.)

Please contact the Student Life Office for the full policy

Policy On Drug & Alcohol Abuse

All Trinity students and employees are expected to maintain standards of conduct, which exclude the possession, use, and distribution of alcohol and tobacco on campus and non-prescription drugs on or off campus.

Alcohol and drug consumption cause a number of changes in behavior, ranging from impaired judgment and coordination, to inhibiting a person's ability to learn and use higher mental functions. Repeated use can lead to dependence, and long-term use will cause permanent damage to the brain, liver, and other vital organs.

Counseling services for drug and substance abuse are available through Trinity's Counseling Center. Besides individual counseling for drug and/or substance abuse, the Counseling Center, in cooperation with the Graduate Student Life Office, will schedule forums as needed to address issues in this area which they believe would be pertinent to the TEDS/TGS student body at large.

Trinity will report all instances of illicit drug use to the proper authorities and work with those authorities in prosecuting to the full extent of local, State, and Federal laws those who unlawfully possess, use or distribute illicit drugs and alcohol on campus. Any student who is using drugs or is in a room/vehicle in which drug use is occurring is subject to immediate dismissal by the institution's Judicial Committee. The school also reserves the right to require a student to submit to an immediate full drug test and room search if there is reasonable suspicion, as deemed by the Dean/Associate/Assistant Dean of Students, that the student may be involved in some form of chemical abuse. Refusal by the student to submit to the test could result in dismissal from the Divinity/Graduate School.

Policy on Internet Posting

Trinity may investigate any information brought to the attention of University officials when individuals have allegedly been involved in violating federal, state or local law(s), Trinity's Community Expectations or that harass, harm and/or discriminate against other individuals. This may include information found on personal websites, Facebook, Instagram, Twitter or other internet-based postings. Students may be asked to remove information from the posting and violations may result in further disciplinary action.

Policy on Mandatory Reporting

All Trinity community members including all students, staff, and faculty are required to immediately contact the Police if they are observer or hearer of the following incidents:

- Assault (including child abuse)
- Battery
- Sexual assault (including but not limited to rape, sodomy and child sexual abuse)
- Murder, or attempted murder.

Immediately after contacting the Police, Campus Safety and Security must also be notified so that they can be aware that the Police have been called, assist them accordingly, and can contact all other necessary university officials.

In addition, all Trinity community members including all students, staff, and faculty are also required to immediately report the following incidents to either Campus Safety and Security or the Dean/Associate/Assistant Dean of Students.

- Illegal activity, including but not limited to theft, illegal drug possession or use, underage drinking, sexual or physical assault.
- Any situation judged to be dangerous or threatening for a student or the community, including but not limited to a suicide threat, bomb threat, or possession of a weapon.

Policy on Room/Vehicle Search Procedure

The Divinity School/Graduate School reserves the right to enter all campus facilities including residence hall rooms, as required for building supervision, maintenance or other school related business. A search may be made of a resident's personal belongings when this is believed necessary to investigate an alleged violation or hazard.

To initiate such a search, the Dean/Associate/Assistant Dean of Students or GRA must first determine that there is a reasonable cause that a violation of school standards has occurred or that personal health or safety may be in jeopardy. A search will be conducted by two or more persons normally including a Dean/Associate/Assistant Dean or GRA and normally in the presence of the resident. Trinity staff may also search vehicles owned or operated by students if there is reasonable cause to believe that the car contains contraband, which is in violation of standards of conduct.

A notice stating the reason for the search and its findings will be provided for the resident. Items believed to be evidence regarding violations or endangering personal health or safety may be impounded, and the resident will be given a receipt for such items removed from the room, vehicle, or area.

Policy on Sexual Harassment and Sexual Assault

Trinity International University (hereinafter referred to as Trinity) is committed to maintaining a Christ-centered community, free of discrimination, including sexual harassment and all forms of sexual intimidation and exploitation. Accordingly, Trinity will not tolerate sexual harassment by any of its students, faculty, or staff. Trinity will also attempt to protect the Trinity Community from sexual harassment by its vendors, consultants, and other third parties who interact with us.

All complaints will be taken seriously and no one who acts in good faith to report sexual harassment, including third parties (e.g., vendors), will suffer retaliation or reprisal. Complaints of sexual harassment will be treated in confidence to the extent feasible, given the need to conduct a thorough investigation and take corrective action. If it is determined through an appropriate and prompt investigation that sexual harassment has occurred, effective corrective action will be taken to eliminate the sexual harassment, attempt to ensure that it does not recur, and appropriately care for those who may have been harmed. Depending on circumstances and the severity of the conduct, corrective action may range from an oral or written warning to dismissal or expulsion.

Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination which violates federal and state law, including Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964; Title IX, Education Amendments of 1972; the Illinois Human Rights Act and Trinity policy.

Sexual harassment includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal, physical, electronic or digital conduct or communication of a sexual nature, when submission to or rejection of the conduct explicitly or implicitly affects a person's employment or education, unreasonably interferes with a person's work or educational performance, or creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive working, learning, or living environment. Sexual assault is a form of sexual harassment which may also constitute criminal conduct.

Sexual Harassment

There are two kinds of sexual harassment:

- Quid pro quo harassment, in which the harasser either provides or denies an employment or educational benefit in exchange for sexual favors, or makes an adverse employment or educational decision on the basis of rejection of sexual advances.
- Hostile environment harassment, in which the working or learning environment is made abusive. An abusive or hostile environment is one that is reasonably and actually perceived by the complaining party as abusive by making it more difficult to do one's job or pursue one's education. Any act of sexual violence creates a hostile environment in violation of this policy.

Examples of quid pro quo sexual harassment include, but are not limited to, the following: a supervisor granting a promotion to an employee because the employee unwillingly consents to have sexual relations with the supervisor; a supervisor firing an employee because the employee refuses to have sexual relations with the supervisor; a faculty member providing an undeserved failing grade to a student because the student refuses to have sexual relations with the professor; a faculty member giving an undeserved high grade to a student because the student consents to have unwanted sexual relations with the faculty member; or a supervisor providing positive references or evaluations for an employee or student in exchange for sexual favors.

Examples of hostile environment harassment include, but are not limited to, the following: requests for sexual favors, persistent sexual slurs, repeated requests for an unwelcome sexual relationship, continual sexually suggestive jokes, gestures or sounds, a pattern of widespread favoritism based on sexual relationships, pornographic or suggestive materials offensive to others, or unwelcome sexual touching. A hostile environment can exist by virtue of a combination of individual incidents that would not, individually, constitute sexual harassment. In order for these examples or other behaviors to constitute hostile environment harassment, the effect of the harassment must create an abusive or hostile environment, usually over a period of time. Even one serious incident may, however, constitute hostile environment harassment, such as an occurrence of sexual violence.

Both men and women are protected from sexual harassment, whether that harassment is perpetrated by a member of the same or opposite sex. Sexual harassment may be committed by a male or a female toward either a male or a female.

Reporting

Any incidents of sexual harassment should be immediately reported to the Student Life office (847.317.7070) if you are a student or Human Resources (847.317.7085). Any person violating these policies may be subject to appropriate community accountability, up to and including termination if they are an employee, or suspension or dismissal if they are an undergraduate or graduate student.

Retaliation

The university strictly prohibits retaliation against any person reporting, assisting, or participating in any manner in any community accountability investigation or proceeding. Retaliation is any action by any person that is perceived as intimidating, hostile, harassing, retribution, or violent that occurred in connection to the making and follow up of the report. This includes retaliation of any kind, whether it's by an employee, student, visitor, or other third party. Any person violating this policy may be subject to appropriate community accountability, up to and including termination if they are an employee, and suspension or dismissal if they are an undergraduate or graduate student.

Sexual Assault:

Sexual assault is any actual, attempted or threatened physical sexual act with another person without that person's consent. It includes, but is not limited to, sexual acts perpetrated by force (expressed or implied), or duress, deception or coercion upon the victim. It includes acts referred to as “date rape” or “acquaintance rape,” and specifically includes sexual acts involving a victim who is incapable of giving consent due to age, disability or impairment by alcohol or drugs. Sexual assault generally will constitute a crime punishable under Illinois statutes. In reported instances of sexual assault, law enforcement will be contacted by the Responsible Officer or the head of Campus Safety and Security. Sexual assault includes, but is not limited to:

- Rape: As required by VAWA the University employs the FBI definition for rape: Penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the victim)
- Acts on a person who is not conscious or able to give consent
- Indecent exposure
- Direct or indirect threats linked to sexual propositions or activity
- Coerced sexual activity
- Sexual battery, the unwanted touching of an intimate part of another person, such as a sex organ, buttocks, or breasts
- Use of intoxicants, including alcohol, intended to incapacitate the victim or impair the victim’s ability to give consent

Sexual Violence: includes domestic violence, dating violence and stalking.

Domestic Violence: is defined as a pattern of abusive behavior that is used by an intimate partner to gain or maintain power and control over the other intimate partner. Domestic violence can be physical, sexual, emotional, economic, or psychological actions or threats of actions that influence another person. This includes any behaviors that intimidate, manipulate, humiliate, isolate, frighten, terrorize, coerce, threaten, blame, hurt, injure, or wound someone.

Dating Violence: is defined as violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:

- The length of the relationship
- The type of relationship
- The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship

Stalking: is defined as a pattern of repeated and unwanted attention, harassment, contact, or any other course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to feel fear.

Individuals who have been sexually assaulted or are in immediate danger should do the following:

1. Get to a safe place. After experiencing a traumatizing event such as sexual assault, it can be important to find a place where you feel comfortable and safe from harm. This could be your home, friend’s room, local hospital, or police station, among others.
2. Remember: sexual assault is never the survivor’s fault. Use these resources to assist you in taking action.

3. Call for assistance. Call 9-1-1 or Campus Safety and Security (847-317-6401). If you would like assistance in filing a report with local police, please contact a Responsible Officer below. The University encourages individuals to call the police because your safety, health, and well-being are of the utmost importance. Calling the police does not relinquish your right to confidentiality or to not press charges.
4. Seek medical attention to check for injuries and to collect evidence. In Illinois, a rape kit can be obtained at a local hospital and an exam given by a SANE nurse. A local hospital is Northwestern Lake Forest Hospital.
5. For the purposes of evidence collection, we suggest that you avoid drinking, eating, showering, brushing your teeth, combing your hair, changing your clothes. If you have done any of these things, evidence may still be collected and it remains important for you to seek medical attention. If you have changed your clothes, take the clothes you were wearing at the time of the assault to the hospital in a paper bag. If you have not changed your clothes, it may be a good idea to bring a change of clothes to the hospital.
6. Contact the Responsible Officer as listed below as soon as possible via phone, email, or in person:

Consensual Relationships

Intimate or romantic relationships between employees, or between employees and students, even when within the bounds of acceptable Christian conduct, may nonetheless pose potentially serious moral, ethical and legal concerns to the individuals and to the institution.

Where a power differential between the parties exists, even consensual relationships may constitute sexual harassment if the effect of such a relationship interferes with an individual's academic or professional performance or if it creates an intimidating environment. Further, conflicts of interest or breaches of professional ethics may arise if one party to the relationship evaluates the work or academic performance of the other, during the relationship or even after it ends. This includes situations in which a faculty member teaches a student or employee with whom he or she has had a relationship.

Employees are cautioned that such relationships could potentially result in a harassment charge, and could result in the individual with the power in the relationship bearing the burden of responsibility.

The institution recommends that where such relationships develop, the individual in a position of authority notify his or her supervisor and that he or she surrenders responsibility for evaluation. Further, where an employee is called upon to supervise an individual with whom he or she has had a romantic relationship, he or she should discuss this with a supervisor. The institution discourages romantic relationships between faculty members and students, and discourages faculty members teaching students with whom they have or have had an intimate or romantic relationship.

- To connect non-authorized private networks. University networks may not be modified, extended, or used in any manner that violates a federal, state, or local law or a University policy

- To transmit, use, or serve unauthorized software

- For computer tampering or unauthorized alteration of data, identification, or credentials
- For introducing deviant software (viruses, worms, etc.) into the University network and systems

Students and employees who do not comply with the “Terms and Conditions for University Technology and Telecommunications Systems—Acceptable Use Policy” are subject to disciplinary action. The University reserves the right to cooperate fully with local, state, and federal officials in investigations relating to information accessed or distributed using University computing systems, the University network, the University phone system, or the University Internet connection.
